

AL Ansar International School is an accredited center of Cambridge University (U.K.) for the professional development qualifications for teachers and trainers to develop their thinking and practice, to improve the quality of teaching and learning.

Currently Al Ansar International School is offering the Cambridge International Certificate in Teaching and Learning (CICTL), which is the first module of Cambridge International Diploma in Teaching and Learning (CIDTL)

About CICTL (Cambridge International Certificate in Teaching and Learning)

A practice-based qualification for continuing professional development, the Cambridge International Certificate in Teaching and Learning delivers an immediate improvement in teaching and learning in all educational contexts. The Certificate encourages initiative and innovation, helping teachers to develop their own abilities, based on their own experience, whilst having their work assessed to international standards.

Activities include lectures, tutorials, presentation, forum discussions and classroom practice and assignments.

It does not only help you to learn how to design and implement your own module but gives you tips and guidelines on how to become a good and remarkable teacher as well.

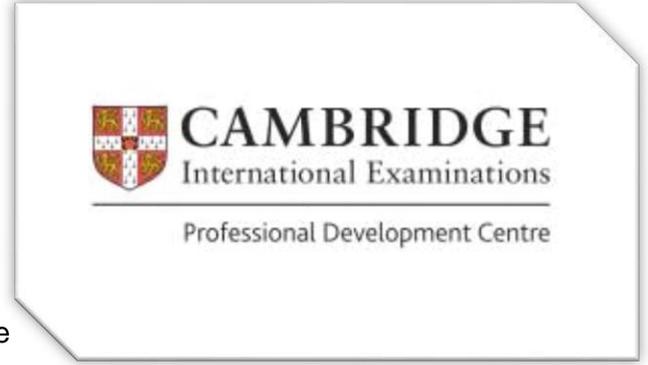

How the certificate will be benefitted?

The Cambridge International Certificate in Teaching and Learning is a practice-based qualification for continuing professional development, relevant to all teaching and learning contexts. Candidates can be teaching in Cambridge programs, e.g. the Cambridge Primary Program or IGCSE, or in other international, national or local programs. The Certificate encourages candidates to refresh their approach to teaching and learning. It is ideal for anyone in a teaching or training role who needs to innovate and to update their skills. The Certificate is based on a range of relevant professional activities, to match the particular needs of candidates and context. As it is a short professional program, the Certificate can quickly help to improve thinking and practice.

CICTL will support a lot to those who are seeking teacher license in United Arab Emirates (U.A.E). The program has been designed to cover the maximum standards of the TELS (Teachers Educational Leadership standards) exams, which are professional and ethical conduct, professional knowledge, Professional practice and professional growth of the teacher.

What are the TELS exams?

Every teacher who is seeking the teacher license will have to appear for these exams based on certain standards. These teacher standards for the UAE were developed to ensure teachers can demonstrate professional competence that aligns with the aspiration of the UAE Vision 2021 and international best practice.

Who can participate for this certificate?

The Certificate is ideal for anyone in a teaching or training role, who needs to update their skills. Candidates can be full or part-time teachers or trainers in schools, colleges, training organizations and companies, working with learners from pre-school through to higher, adult and work-based education. They can be new in the teaching/training role or having years of experience.

Cambridge International Certificate in Teaching and Learning at a glance:

To achieve the Certificate, candidates must complete one practice-based assignment, consisting of evidence of three activities in their teaching. The assignment is externally assessed by Cambridge and feedback is provided to the centre and to the candidate.

The assignment is organized around three activities:

1. Understanding principles of learning and teaching
2. Teaching an effective lesson
3. Facilitating active learning through effective teaching
